Hall of Fame-Debbie Woodruff discussed the existing information in the Hall of Fame archives. Rhonda Mulvany had relayed to Debbie Woodruff that there should be more information on the several of the past nominees. We need to look for more information on some prior nominees. There was discussion about the deadlines. We are going to have a nomination deadline of February 28 and the secondary form from the nominee due later.

Fundraising-Brad Detering updated the Foundation about changes to the Shooting for Education Fundraiser. There will be different activities geared towards the high school student section, but the amount raised will not be substantially affected as all of the sponsors have agreed to the changes.
